ART. 5 - METHODS OF USE OF THE REWARDS PLAN

The methods for the implementation of the Rewards Plan are indicated below, in particular:

(5.2) validity of Reward Points and Cancellation of Points due to inactivity;
(5.3) use of Points and Reward redemption;
(5.4) Prize Pool.

ART. 5.1 - ACCRUAL OF POINTS AND PROMOTIONS

Participation in the Rewards Plan is free.

The Points are divided into:

i) QUALIFYING POINTS or TIER POINTS: those obtained with the purchase of Flex Fare Italo Tickets, which contribute to achieving and maintaining the Tiers described in the Loyalty Program Regulations;

ii) REWARD POINTS: those obtained with the purchase of Italo Tickets according to the criteria set out in the following table and through the purchase of goods and services offered by the Partners of the Rewards Plan and can be used to redeem rewards such as Italo Reward Tickets or others prizes available in the Rewards Catalog. Reward Tickets can be used to travel exclusively on Italo’s High Speed routes.

Participants can only start collecting Points after registering for the Program, therefore taking part in the Rewards Plan is necessarily subject to enrollment in the Program.

In order to accrue Points, each Participant must enter/provide their Italo Più Code (i.e. the personal identification code issued at the time of registration in the Program) whenever:

• purchasing an Italo Ticket;

• purchasing goods and/or services offered by Partners.

When purchasing an Italo Ticket that is in combination with or supplemented by transport services offered by other carriers (hereinafter “Combined Ticket”):

(i) Points will be accumulated only by the Participant who purchases the Combined Ticket by entering his or her Italo Più code and not by any other passengers included in the same Combined Ticket;

(ii) Participants will accumulate Points solely and exclusively based on the portion of the route traveled by the Italo train.

The Participant’s Italo Più Code must be given at the time of purchase of any Italo Ticket. In the event of failure to enter their Italo Più Code within the aforementioned terms, the Participant will not accrue Points.

Every Participant must always be sure that his or her Italo Più Code is listed on the Italo Ticket, and/or on the purchase receipt of the goods and/or services provided by Partners.

Unless otherwise indicated, Points are not assignable, relocatable or transferable to accounts other than the Participant’s own account (hereinafter, the “Account”).

Furthermore, Points can neither be converted to nor paid out in cash and can only be used for the purposes indicated in the Regulations.

The Participant who correctly provides their Italo Più Code, following in the aforementioned terms, must be the same individual to use the Italo Ticket purchased and/or the goods and/or services purchased by the Partners.

If, at the conclusion of the Rewards Plan, Points accrued are insufficient to redeem a Prize, the Participant will have nothing to claim from ITALO, and will not be entitled to any sum of money for the Points accrued but not used.

ITALO reserves the right to verify that the points are accrued in accordance with these Regulations.

ITALO reserves the right to withhold Points if there is sufficient cause to suspect any attempt at fraud or any activity that does not comply with these Regulations.

Points accumulated improperly, or which are the result of abnormal and/or unjustified deposits, will be blocked and irrevocably removed.

The amount of Points accrued by each Participant is fixed and is determined by the following three parameters, depending on the Italo Ticket purchased:

- route;
- travel class;
- commercial offer.

For the purposes of these Regulations, the assignment of Points is determined by the following:

- two types of routes, SHORT and MEDIUM-LONG (for information on the classification of “SHORT ROUTES” and “MEDIUM-LONG ROUTES”, please refer to the details regarding Reward Tickets in Appendix C);
- four types of travel class: CLUB, PRIMA, COMFORT, SMART;
- various commercial offers: FLEX, ECONOMY, LOW COST, SAME DAY ROUND TRIP, TRAVEL PACK FLEX IN PRIMA.

The criteria, the conditions of distribution, and the quantity of Reward Points allotted for each Italo Ticket purchased refer to the ITALO Commercial Offers available at the time of purchase and are summarized below in the following TABLE.
